OA at Summer Camp
A conversation with Thomas Shulse - OA Director, Camp Ransburg

Will you be attending a Crossroads of America Council camp this summer? Are you an Arrowman? If you answered yes to both of these questions, then look forward to OA fellowship. Each camp offers a various OA activities. For example, eligible Ordeal members can seal their membership by accepting the Brotherhood while at camp. Talk to the camp’s OA representative to learn more about each camp’s specific program. Be prepared for a fun time at camp, and do not forget to bring a sash!

-Thomas Shulse

Welcome All New Ordeal Members!!

Congratulations on completing your chapter ordeal! We look forward to your service and involvement in our order throughout the rest of your Scouting career! Please check out the many opportunities available to you as a member of the Order of the Arrow.

Congratulations New Brotherhood

Congratulations on taking the next step within our Order and sealing your membership with Brotherhood! Keep on working hard in your service and devotion to the welfare of others!

Service at State Fair

Members of Jaccos Towne Lodge have once again been asked to provide service at the Boy Scout area during the Indiana State Fair in August 2014.

If you would like to volunteer, please go to the Council site at www.crossroadbsa.org, select Activities - State Fair and click on the link to volunteer. It would be helpful if you let the Lodge Chief know that you have volunteered! Please email him at: chief@jaccostownelodge.org. Thank you.

NOAC

The Order of the Arrow celebrates its 100th Anniversary in 2015. The National Order of the Conference or NOAC will be held at Michigan State University, August 3-8, 2015. It is not too early to make plans to attend! The cost is $500 plus transportation. (The lodge is looking at ways to fundraise transportation.) A deposit of $100 is needed to hold your place! The registration deposit form is available at lodge events and online at the Lodge website.

For more information check out the NOAC website at: http://event.oa- bsa.org/events/n2015/

Recently, I was given the opportunity to reflect on quite a few things. Included in those musings were the Scout Oath, The Scout Law, and my Ordeal four years ago. I recall that I never gave too much thought to what happened at my Ordeal, as I enjoyed my Brotherhood induction more, but what happens at an Ordeal is incredibly important. In the Pre-Ordeal ceremony, Kichkinet reminds us that “This Ordeal is but a shadow of the rigors of the journey.” Upon completion of the Ordeal, Allowat Sakima reminds us that our membership is granted “Not only for what you have done, but for what you are expected to do.” He also reminds us that the Ordeal is not the conclusion of a journey, but rather the beginning of one. These particular lines spoke to me quite a lot as I remembered that my work as a Scout and as an Arrowman is never done. I know that I find myself slipping, from time to time, into the habit of not remembering the Scout Oath and Law or the ideals of the Order of the Arrow in my daily behavior. I think we all need to take some time in the near futures, whether that be at our Chapter Ordeals, Summer Camp, or just a day in your life, and set aside a few hours for reflection upon the Scout Oath and Law and the ideals of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and Service. As Arrowmen, we have all promised to live up to these ideals, and that is a journey that can only be completed with constant reflection. Take some time to get your bearings and remember the ideals that form the basis of our Brotherhood. I think you’ll find it worthwhile.

A Heartfelt Welcome,

Welcome, my Brothers, to Boy Scout’s National Honor Society. You have been elected by your fellow Scouts because they look to you for experience and guidance. You have proven your worthiness by serving others during self sacrifice. For these reasons you may proudly wear the tokens of our service fraternity. With the Ordeal behind you, you are entitled to all the benefits and recognitions shared by Arrowmen throughout the country.

This is but the beginning of a new Scouting Trail. An honorable trail, filled with opportunities to serve others within Scouting as well as the community. As an Arrowman, I urge you to be a beacon of selfless service to others. Please be mindful that others will judge our Order by your actions and the service opportunities that you eagerly undertake and those that you do not.

In service to others, you are not alone. We are a fraternity, a brotherhood. As one, we are one. Look to your Brothers in the Order of the Arrow for strength and guidance when you feel tired and challenged. Many we are strong.

The Order of the Arrow is not just about service. There are also many opportunities for fun and fellowship along with valuable leadership training for your growth within Scouting and later in life. We look forward to seeing you at various Lodge gatherings. These weekends also provide a unique opportunity for you to meet others outside of your unit. This allows you to gather knowledge and wisdom from a large and diverse group from across Indiana and nationally. Oh, and we tend to have a great deal of fun as well.

In addition to Lodge events, you are now welcome to participate in Section Conclave and the National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC). Sections Conclave occurs annually in April and offers broader exposure to Scouting and leadership by Arrowmen from throughout the Midwest region. The 2015 Conclave will be one not to miss as it will be hosted by our lodge and held at Camp Belzer. NOAC is customarily held every two years. It has a National Jamboree feel and in 2015 and may be the...

Lodge Ordeal, Vigil & Elections
September 12-14, 2014
Camp Krietenstein

The Lodge will hold its Ordeal the weekend of September 12-14, 2014 at Camp Krietenstein. Please make sure any Ordeal candidates in your Chapter who have not gone through their Ordeal are informed about this opportunity! Brotherhood will also be offered, and the Vigil will be held on Friday evening.

The Lodge will hold elections the weekend of its Ordeal. Any interested youth Arrowman (must be under the age of 21 for entire term of office) may run for a Lodge Office. A completed Officer Petition, which is available in this newsletter and on the Lodge website, must be completed in order to run.

Founder's Award Nominations
Due in September

Introduced at the 1981 National Order of the Arrow Conference, the Founder’s Award recognizes Arrowmen who have given outstanding service to their lodge. The award is reserved for an Arrowman who demonstrates that he or she personifies the spirit of selfless service, as advocated by founder E. Urner Goodman and cofounder Carroll A. Edson.

Founders Award nominations are due at the September 14th LEC. Forms are available on the Lodge website.

Lodge Leadership Development
November 14-16

Lodge Leadership Development (LLD) will be held at Camp Kikthawenund November 14-16, 2013. All elected lodge and chapter officers must attend. All Arrowmen interested in improving their leadership skills may also attend. Come for the learning and fellowship!

Lodge Banquet
November 15th - Camp Belzer

Lodge Banquet will be held at Camp Kikthawenund November 15, 2013 beginning at 6:00 p.m. All Arrowmen are encouraged to attend for food, for fellowship, and to celebrate the lodge’s achievements in 2014.
